

3/27/20 Worksheet – ELL Program

Instructions:

1. Read a book, article, magazine, etc. or listen to an audiobook or podcast. You can also use this if you watch a tv show or movie, or even if you play a game!
2. Draw the important events in the boxes on the sequence chart
3. Write the title of your media and what happened on a piece of paper. You can use these sentence starters to help you get started
 - Picture 1:
 - First _____
 - In the beginning _____
 - Initially _____
 - Pictures 2-4
 - Next _____
 - After that _____
 - Following this _____
 - Picture 5
 - Next _____
 - Following this _____
 - Near the end _____
 - Picture 6
 - Finally, _____
 - In the end _____
 - At the end of the story _____
4. Do it again!

3/27/20 Worksheet – ELL Program

A large, empty rectangular box with a purple border, intended for student input.A large, empty rectangular box with a purple border, intended for student input.A large, empty rectangular box with a purple border, intended for student input.A large, empty rectangular box with a purple border, intended for student input.A large, empty rectangular box with a purple border, intended for student input.A large, empty rectangular box with a purple border, intended for student input.