

4/3/20- ELL Supplement for 2-5 Instructions

Instructions:

1. Choose a book, story, poem, article, podcast, or audiobook to read or listen to.
2. Stop when you get to a word you don't know, or a word that seems interesting to you.
3. In box 1 of the graphic organizer, write your name, the title of what you are reading or listening to, the page number or timestamp where you found the word, and the word.
4. In box 2 of the graphic organizer, write what you think the word might mean.
5. In box 3 of the graphic organizer, draw a quick sketch about your thinking.
6. Read or listen to the pages or minutes near the word again.
7. In box 4 of the graphic organizer, write what you think it means after reading or listening again.
8. Look up the word in a dictionary or online dictionary. Dictionary.com is a good place to look if you have internet access.
9. In box 5 of the graphic organizer, write the definition you found.
10. In box 6 of the graphic organizer, draw what it means.
11. Complete one graphic organizer every day this week.
12. Keep the graphic organizers together to create your personal dictionary.
